

Philateliography Canada

August, 1991
Volume 1 #2

This is the second issue of a BNAPS study group dedicated to literature. I am hoping to get this mailed before BNAPEX '91, with some extra copies going to Vancouver to try and pick up a few more members.

In this issue is part I of "Catalogue of the Philatelic Library of The Earl Of Crawford, K.T. by E.D. Bacon" : Canadian Publications, submitted by Ralph Mitchener. Part II will appear in the next study group newsletter.

Also in this issue is "Canada's First National Philatelic Literature Exhibition: Was it the largest national philatelic literature exhibition ever held in North America?" by Charles Verge.

In last issue, I mentioned that"

Ray Saintonge is looking for information and (photo)copies of Canadiana published by "Mariahelf" in 1902 at Grenfell, N.W.T. (i.e. Assa. and now Sask.). This is McCready number 85; he doubted its validity himself, but included it anyway. Ricketts shows it as being from "Maria East, Canada", which is even more perplexing.

The periodical "Canadiana" is listed in The Earl of Crawford list, as #491.

Paul Burega

P.S. : Write me with your ideas for future articles, columns. etc.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Paul Burega is getting married on August 24, 1991 and will not be with us at BNAPS in Vancouver. However, I will be there and will have additional copies of both Vol. 1 # 1 & 2 of Philateliography Canada for people who wish to join. Send them my way during the Convention.

The page numbering for each volume of Philateliography Canada will be continuous. Vol. 1 # 1 should have been numbered pages 1 through 4. Vol. 1 # 2 will begin at page 5.

THE A.I.S.P.<sup>1</sup> PHILATELIC LITERATURE PRIZE

Since January 1, 1991, the Italian Postal History Association (A.I.S.P.) offers an award for a philatelic literature work. The prize will be awarded annually, and assigned to the author, or alternatively to the Editor, of a work related to philatelic and or/postal history literature. This work must have been published not earlier than five years prior to the date of the annual prize and written either in a western language or published bilingually.

The prize consists of a sum of 3,000 Swiss francs or the equivalent in gold coins.

A Committee of Experts will select the works to be entered into competition and will choose the prize winner. The A.I.S.P. Philatelic Literature Prize will be presented to the winner at a ceremony which will take place during the meeting of the A.I.S.P., expected to be each year immediately before Christmas.

The A.I.S.P. Association will take care to promote, through appropriate advertising channels, the institution and the availability of the Philatelic Literature prize.

Participation in this competition will imply, without reservation, the acceptance of its regulations. Authors and/or Editors wishing to participate in this competition should send their work to:

Mr. Silvano Sorani
Secretary, A.I.S.P.
Via Washington, 74
20146 Milano, ITALY

This should be done not later than September 29 of each year. Works arriving after that date will be entered and examined with the works for the next year's competition.

Additional information may be obtained, from anywhere in Canada by telephone at 011-39-2-46.19.116 or by FAX at 011-39-2-4800-9474.

Canada's First National Philatelic Literature Exhibition: Was it the largest national philatelic literature exhibition ever held in North America?

by Charles J. G. Verge, Chairman, ORAPEX '91

The R.A. Stamp Club of Ottawa organized what is possibly the largest national-level philatelic literature exhibition ever held in North America in honour of the 100th anniversary of its sister club: the Ottawa Philatelic Society (OPS). The OPS was founded by John Reginald Hooper, in 1891, under the French name of Société Philatélique d'Ottawa. As far as it is known, the OPS is the longest continuous stamp club in Canada.

The R.A.'s national level philatelic exhibition was held May 3-5, 1991 at the Ray Kinsella Arena of the R.A. Centre and was the 30th annual show of the club. 109 entries from Canada, the U.S., Great Britain, Germany and Australia were entered for competition in Canada's First National Philatelic Literature Exhibition.

There were 53 entries in the handbook and monograph section (Section O); 19 in the philatelic newspapers (commercial) and national and international journals and periodicals section (P); 15 in the section which includes study group journals and newsletters (Q); 14 in the auction catalogue section (P) and 6 in the other catalogue grouping (R). As well there was one entry in the Court of Honour and one entry, the Académie québécoise d'études philatéliques' Cahiers de l'Académie - OPUS VIII (O30) was hors-concours as it was launched at the Show. These numbers are certainly an indication of the healthy state of philatelic writing in these countries.

Judges Ken Rowe -- Canada's only international level philatelic literature judge, Ralph Mitchener -- well-known Ottawa columnist and national level judge and apprentice Cimon Morin -- Chief of the Canadian Postal Archives, were hard at work reading and evaluating the entries well before the show opened, in fact since mid-January. Show-goers were able to consult all the entries at the philatelic literature reading booth. The booth was staffed by the Ottawa Philatelic Society.

Gold Fever, a fantastic history of gold rushes throughout the world, illustrated with the help of philately, was awarded a gold medal and the Literature Grand Award -- a contemporary caricature of the Earl of Crawford (1847-1913), a well know philatelic literature collector. Kenneth Kutz, the author of Gold Fever, a native of Saskatchewan and President of the Collector's Club of New-York, was on hand to accept his award at the O.P.S. Centennial Banquet which also served as ORAPEX's awards banquet. Mr. Kutz was in Ottawa to see how the ORAPEX organizing committee had organized Canada's First National Philatelic Literature Exhibition. His visit was in preparation for the first international philatelic literature exposition held in the U.S.A. It is sponsored jointly by the Collector's Club and the Philatelic Foundation and will be held in New-York November 4-14, 1992.

Reserve Grand Awards were provided for each of the categories. In the handbook section (O), Walter Hubbard and Richard F. Winter's North Atlantic Mail Sailings, 1840-1875 (Gold) was so honoured. The Reserve for Section P: Philatelic newspapers (commercial) and periodicals of national and international societies was awarded to The Philatelic Foundation Quarterly (Vermeil). The Czechoslovak Specialist (Silver) won for Section Q: Philatelic journals and periodicals of study groups. The fourth Reserve Grand Award was merited by Postal Stationery of Ireland (Silver) entered on behalf of the Forschungs - und Arbeitsgemeinschaft Irland.

The Jury underlined the high calibre of the entries by awarding Felicitations to four entries. These were Menachim Max Mayo's Anatolia (Gold); The Philatelic Foundation's Opinions I-V: The Complete Abstracts and Index (Silver); Edward Zaluski's Canadian Revenues, Volume I - III (Silver) and Philatélie Québec (Silver) edited by Francois Brisse. A complete listing of all the medals awarded to the entries of B.N.A. interest will be found at the end of this article.

The judges felt that Section R: Auction catalogues should not be judged as there existed no criteria for judging them in philatelic literature exhibitions. The organizing committee of ORAPEX '91 were not aware of this when issuing the prospectus. As a result, all entries in the section (R1 - R14) and entries S2 and S6 which were sent to that section by the jury were transferred to the Court of Honour. A list of relevant B.N.A. interest entries is found at the end of the Palmares.

Three judging seminars were also held during the show. One on how to judge philatelic literature, led by Ken Rowe, was for Bill Bailey of Vancouver, Paul Burega and myself, who are both from Ottawa, the last step for accreditation as National literature judges.

Canada Post provided two different cancellations at ORAPEX '91. The first, which was available all three days of Ottawa's National Stamp Exhibition -- May 3, 4 and 5, 1991 featured a stack of books in commemoration of philatelic literature. A second handstamp was used only on May 4, 1991 to honour the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Ottawa Philatelic Society.

The combined banquet and awards ceremony in celebration of the OPS's 100th birthday was attended by some 100 guests and Gini Horn, Director of Library Services of the American Philatelic Society (APS) and Associate Editor of the American Philatelic Literature Review, was the guest speaker. Her interesting talk centred around the philatelic periodicals of the 1890s.

Canada's Second National Philatelic Literature Exhibition will be held during the 65th Convention of the Royal Philatelic Society of Canada at ROYAL * 1993 * ROYALE at/à ORAPEX, April 30 avril / May 2 mai, 1993. Prospecti will be available in June 1992 and can be obtained by writing to me at P.O. Box 2788, Station 'D', Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1P 5W8.
