Hilda and I visited the Sarasota Stamp Show in Florida, we had beautiful, glorious weather. It was great meeting with the various collectors and dealers, several dealers had a nice stock of Canadian Revenues. Chuck Morgan was quite busy as usual with the administration of the exhibit and show. Chuck had an exhibit in the show which won an award.

I wrote in the Feb. Newsletter to look over your FE 8 to 16 stamps. van DAM lists the $5 FE 16 with a black Control #. French in his 1942 Revenue Handbook lists a $3 with black control #. I have never found any of this series with black control #s. Perhaps you will have better luck.

100 Years

The Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia enacted an Act respecting Law Stamps enacted at the Law Stamp Act 1879. It provided for the use of Law Stamps of gold and silver and the payment of the fees and charges due to the Crown upon legal proceedings.

Almost all Provinces of Canada issued Law Stamps at one time or the other and the Law Stamps of Upper and Lower Canada and Manitoba preceded the ones issued in the Province of British Columbia.

Unlike most of these Provinces, where the use of Law Stamps was discontinued long ago, British Columbia still issues Law Stamps today (1982). Most Court Registers however now only use meter impression machines to register filing and service fees according to tariffs laid down in the Supreme Court Rules and the use of Law Stamps, once widespread, is not limited to but a few, small locations. It is therefore expected that these colourful issues will soon be a thing of the past.

During the 100 years that Law Stamps have been issued, nearly 15,000,000 stamps were affixed to legal documents, using 11 different denominations. Twelve different series can be recognized, each one quite distinct from the others by peculiar features of the design or perforations. Each series has been named according to these distinctive features or in recognition of some Register and the Province of British Columbia.

1879-1979 MISS THE CENTENNIAL OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

The collection was assembled as a token tribute to 100 years of litigation in the Province of British Columbia. The design of 63 stamps will help to remind legal practitioners and laypersons of their colourful past, not only measured in terms of artistic stamp impressions on documents, but also by an effective legal system through which many disputes were settled and resolved.

The original of this reproduction was presented to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia in October 1982.

It is on display in the Law Courts, 200 Beatty, Vancouver, British Columbia. M.C.B. 75.10.82
