Plan on attending the 13th Annual Willow Grove Revenue get-to-gether. Saturday June 2, 2030 Overlook Ave. As usual anyone in the vicinity will get together Friday evening for a Dutch Treat dinner.

Sat. 9 A. M. until ? Revenues - Breakfast - lunch dinner - Program for the Ladies.

We attended the Mid-Atlantic Group meeting at State College, Pa. there were about 25 BNA Members present. Practically all the awards were won in the exhibition by our members. Our member Al Cook won a gold and the Mid-Atlantic BNAPS award for his exhibit of Edward Booklet panes. Congratulations Al. Hilda and I had a great time. Ed Whiting was there. He is continually improving, we thought he looked great. Ed is looking forward to being President of BNAPS for 1984.

Received in the Mail

The Canadian Revenue Society

The Canadian Revenue Society was founded in 1938. During their existence the CRS published at least 25 studies and publications, these studies were made by such students of Canadian Revenues as Dr. DeL French, R. A. Odell Nelson Bond, E. L. Piggott, C. Armstrong, C. D. E. Garrett, B. Pelletier, Colin Makepeace, Arthur Ayre, Dr. Novotney. Many of these publications are still the best reference material available.

Roger DeL French was secretary, he published 142 Bulletins. The Canadian Revenue Society became the Revenue Group of BNAPS in 1954. Therefore we are 30 years old.

Between 1962 and 1968 Ed Richardson published the Canadian and BNA Revenue Yearbook "Charter Membership Edition" with 64 Charter Members of which 16 are still members of our Revenue Group. We still have 6 members who were original members of the Canadian Revenue Society.

Ed Richardson published 12 Newsletters

In 1971 Bill Rockett took over as Editor of the Canadian Revenue Newsletter. So far he has published 138 Newsletters.

We expect to be in Quebec for the Royal Convention May 18/20
We hope to have a Revenue Seminar. Be sure to attend if you are there.
