February, I don't expect to issue a Newsletter, Hilda and I hope to be in Florida for the Month. Naturally I am planning on attending the Sarasota Stamp Exhibition Feb. 6/8. I'll see a few of our members there.

Flags QUADRUPLE.

Illustrated above; Three new items reported by Harry Lussey. Imagine looking through an envelope of the 1¢ War Tax and finding this perforated copy with the "DIV 17". This should have us all searching through duplicates. The copy in the middle is the 2¢ War Tax with "black squares" printed double. Also, a copy of the 1/2¢ Excise Tax with "Flags" Quadruple.

Yes, there are many Canadian Revenues out there to be found.

See the 1¢ "DEV 17" War Tax, Harry Lusey found.

At our local Stamp Club this month, the only other Canadian Revenue collector looked through an assortment of Canadian. There were probably 20 to 30 Revenue items. You know the usual stuff. But there was one item the 25¢ War Tax FWF 15a, the railway ties pre-cancel in beautiful condition. So the moral, keep looking. You never know when the goose will lay the golden egg. Of course, this time I missed out. However, I was glad for him, as he needed it in his collection.
