YEARBOOK EDITION

Pall Mall Auctions

COME TO CANADA

For many years, over five hundred collectors in Canada have bought their stamps and covers from our auctions in London and Bournemouth. The ease with which they have been able to buy, often receiving their purchases within a week of the sale day, has added greatly to their enjoyment of the hobby, the only disadvantage being that the same opportunity for selling through the same market was denied them by the Finance Regulations in Great Britain.

Since the beginning of the year, these regulations have been removed and is available to every collector in the Dominion. Whatever country you collect, you will find the best and speediest market in England. Despatched by air, there can be no reason why you do not receive an advance payment in dollars within ten to fourteen days of the time when you mailed your collection. The sum advanced can often equal or better a price that you would receive for an outright sale for cash in North America.

Therefore, your selling can be as conveniently handled through Pall Mall as if we had moved our business to Canada, but you have the added benefit of selling in the best market in the world.

FIFTY SPECIALISED STAMP SALES

and Postal History Auctions will be held this season at FIFTY PALL MALL, LONDON, S.W.1

There is always an appropriate auction in our diary for the inclusion of the most difficult material.

Posts in Vancouver Island and British Columbia Before Entry into Confederation

PART I

AFTER THE SCHOLARLY and comprehensive work of my old friend, the late Stanley Deaville, on the Colonial Postal Systems and Postage Stamps of Vancouver Island and British Columbia, and the precise listing of handstamps by another old acquaintance, Gerald Wellburn, in BNA TOPICS in 1950, it is rather an act of supererogation to write on British Columbia's postal history. But I am emboldened to do so by the fact that I can find only one small paragraph on the posts in the British Columbia Official Centennial Record put out this year, and that is far from accurate. So perhaps there is room for some further comments on the posts of these two Pacific Coast colonies.

The treatment mentioned above is all the more surprising because the posts loomed high in negotiations for entry of the colony of British Columbia into Confederation, which finally took place in 1871. As Deaville puts it:

"Not the least of the considerations that helped to bring about the entry of British Columbia into the Dominion of Canada was the understanding that the Canadian Government proposed to take over the colonial postal services and defray all expenses in connection therewith, at the same time reducing the rates of postage, improving the communications to and from and within the Colony, and giving British Columbians the advantages of Canada's postal conventions and arrangements with other countries. The Dominion Government also undertook to maintain regular mail steamship services between San Francisco and Victoria. It is writ large in the contemporary badinage of the press, and has first place in the doggerel verse broadcast by the advocates of union:

"You want the mail
You want the rail,
You want the cars to hie on:
Come join us and we'll thread the land
With passage-ways of iron."

I only propose to give a very brief outline of the postal arrangements in the two colonies, but will illustrate several aspects from a small group of 'stampless' which I was fortunate to acquire a number of years ago. This relates to a young Canadian immigrant to British Columbia about the time of the first gold rush. He was John V. Woolsey, who left his home in Quebec City to sail around Cape Horn and reach Vancouver Island early in 1859.

Communications with the British posts and settlements on the Pacific Coast were at first handled by the Hudson Bay Company and, when the Colony of Vancouver's Island was founded in 1849, under the control of the company, it assumed responsibility for transmitting mails to and from the United States without charge to legitimate colonists. In November 1858, the Colony of British Columbia was created on the mainland. James Douglas, Governor of Vancouver's Island, also became first Governor of the new colony. Earlier in that year, the first gold rush to the gravel beds of the Fraser River began. Douglas rapidly devised a small postal system with headquarters at Victoria and offices at Fort Langley, Fort Hope and Fort Yale on the mainland. A prepaid postage of five cents was established within the colonies, with varying rates to outside places, all including the colonial postage. These rates were set out in a notice in the Victoria Gazette of November 30, 1858.

Coming of the Express Companies

The coming of the gold miners from the south brought in the American Express Companies, such as Wells-Fargo, and also encouraged local services, such as the famous "BX" or Barnard's Express. These all handled letters as well as parcels, and at varying charges. Their story is fascinating but impossible to deal with in this short review.

In the new Colony of British Columbia, a site was picked for the capital by Colonel Moody of the Royal Engineers. The name first suggested by him was Queenborough, but there were objections from the inhabitants of Victoria that it paraphrased too closely the name of their own Queen City, and "Queensborough" was suggested as a compromise. Feelings ran high, and Governor Douglas wisely referred the matter to England for decision.

Deville, in his account of this, concluded: "Her Majesty, after due consideration, finally designated the infant capital 'New Westminster', honoring it with the name of the Mother of Parliament."

In time, other offices were opened on the mainland and on the island and, in July 1860, the postal establishments of the two colonies were separated. In 1864, the first British Columbian Postal Ordinance was passed. It increased the rates to the neighboring colony slightly, from 2½d (5 cents) to 3d, but standardized the internal rates at 6d.

The Woolsey correspondence contains some most interesting comments on early days in the two colonies.

On April 14, 1859 Woolsey writes to his mother from Victoria, the folded letter showing on the address side a circular handstamp SAN FRANCISCO 15 PAID/May/5/1859 in red, and on the reverse the small circle Quebec handstamp of the period, dated May 29; the letter therefore taking some six weeks in delivery. The writer was just leaving by the "Beaver" (the historic Hudson Bay Company's steamer of the 1830s, the first in north Pacific waters and illustrated in the Centennial Record mentioned before) for Fort Langley on the mainland, and hoped to get to the gold mines at Bridge River by canoe and pack train up the Lilloet trail with a party of five—two Scotsmen, one Englishman, and another Canadian—"nice gentlemanly fellows."

Mad Rush Subsiding

The mad rush to the Fraser goldfields of 1858 was now subsiding, and Woolsey evidently soon returned—if he ever completed the journey—as in June of 1859 he writes his mother that he is teaching school and working in a law office in Victoria waiting for a better job. The letter is most critical of conditions in the colony and parts are well worth quoting:

"... as to government places they are out of the question as Governor Douglas told me himself that there are a large number of young Englishmen out here and some with letters from the Colonial Office and of course they would get places before anybody else." (Ironically, he soon had a government job in the customs.)

"There are quite a large number of Canadians here from both parts of the province who came out in the hopes of being able to get lands to settle down on, but there are no lands surveyed yet (and Lord knows when there will be) and preemption is altogether out of the question. Consequently a large number have gone and are going to Washington Territory."

"Col. Moody called a meeting of Canadians in Queenboro the other day and made the following very liberal offer (if Canadians got up a petition praying for a grant of land, which was done & presented at the meeting: that they might select lands in different parts of the country and when the English Capitalists should come out, & choose the land they wished, then, if the lands picked out by the Canadians were not taken by them, they (the Canadians) would then be given a grant of such lands which very liberal offer, was (as a matter of course) refused."

"The Government here have killed one of the finest chances for starting a Colony that has ever occurred . . . since the world was made. Had lands been given out last year or even sold at the Government high prices, it is the general opinion here that country would have contained nearly 50,000 inhabitants at present with an increasing population, instead of about 4,000 and those leaving the Country by every opportunity."

This letter has the same San Francisco handstamp as the previous one, but, in addition, there is "15" in red pencil. This was probably put on in Victoria to indicate that the letter was prepaid as required and that cash accompanied it to San Francisco for the U.S. postage. It evidently went overland through Detroit, as there is a "U.STATES" boxed semi-circular handstamp and "15" in a hexagon on the face, and a Windsor, C.W. postmark on the back. It reached Quebec on July 8, a little over a month, which was good time. Deville mentions that, in 1859 the U.S. Government agreed to transmit B.C.-to-Canada letter mails overland with their own by American Express Company stage coach between San Francisco and St. Louis and by rail between New York and St. Louis. The stage coach portion was performed in 22 days. A large proportion of the mails, however, still continued to go by way of Panama, where there was a linking railway.

An Interesting Envelope

In November 1859 there is an interesting envelope addressed to Woolsey at the Customs, New Westminster. No adhesive stamps were available until 1860, and several handstamps were employed to mark letters presented for mailing, for advance franking of envelopes for sale to the public, either directly or through Victoria merchants, and for the express companies. The envelope in Figure 1 shows the second instrument used—the first was a Customs seal.

The oval handstamp was obtained from San Francisco in 1858 and was in use only from 1859 to 1960. The double-lined oval PAID was also purchased at the same time as a complement to the stamp. This last instrument was, and presumably still is, in the possession of Gerald Wellburn.

The envelope is signed "A. T. Bushby" in the bottom left corner. It may merely show the normal use of the handstamp but the endorsement makes it look like an example of an official frank. Bushby, a notable figure in the colonies, had been appointed Registrar of the Supreme Court of British Columbia in February 1859, and in April 1866 became the Acting Postmaster General of British Columbia. The next year he was placed in nominal charge of the postal services of the United Colonies. He kept that office until 1871, when British Columbia entered Confederation. ★

(To be concluded in our next issue)

Commemorate Bicentennial Of Democratic Government

A new postage stamp will be issued on October 2 to commemorate the beginning of democratic government in Canada. The first House of Representatives, in what is now Canada, met in the city of Halifax on October 2, 1758. This first Assembly of Elected Members became the forerunner of representative government in Canada.

Hon. William Hamilton, Postmaster General, has drawn attention to the design of the stamp, which features the Mace and Speaker's Chair as the two most popular symbols of the parliamentary system of Canada.

Trail of the Caribou

By DAN MEYERSON (BNAPS L3)

I GUESS THAT it only goes to prove that a stamp collector really never stops in his search for information. Several weeks ago Roz and I drove down to Huntingdon Valley, Pa., to spend the weekend with the Llewellyns. On Sunday we all drove over to the Culhanes who live in nearby Norristown, and Peg and Jim dragged out the liquid cheer to refresh the tired travellers. Since I was nursing a brand-new ulcer, I very wisely and prudently refrained from joining them, so for want of something to do I started to leaf through Jim's very interesting Newfoundland collection. Jim goes in rather strongly for covers and one in particular caught my eye. So, having made the necessary notes, I checked it when I got home and sure enough, it shows the latest use of the "235" cancel on cover recorded thus far. It is a very nice cover with or without the "235", but that late date is really the frosting on the cake. The cover, posted at St. John's on March 8, 1887 is addressed to Pennsylvania in the U.S.A., and is franked with a pair of the 1 cent violet brown, Scott No. 41, and a single of the 3 cent blue, Scott No. 49, to make up the five cent rate. This is almost three months later than the cover submitted by Dr. Allan A. Wilkinson and written up in the June 1956 issue. We see that there was a typographical error in this writeup as the previous late date was July 3, 1886, and not "1887" as was published. This cover of Jim's is the latest recorded.

Little by little those reported-but-never-seen items slowly turn up. We first heard of the existence of a Plate 2 in the UL margin on the 2 cent, Scott No. 186, in the Die II from Stan Wood of Auckland, New Zealand, who advised that it had been recorded in the March 1939 issue of Gibbons' Stamp Monthly. We thought that it might be a mistake as a Plate 2 did exist on No. 186 but it was on the Die I and the plate number was reversed. As we continued to search for it we had almost concluded that it didn't exist, when out of the blue we received a letter from Dr. Willan (BNAPS 568), Lancashire, England, and in it he enclosed an upper left plate single from Plate 2 in the Die II. Thank you, Dr. Willan, for clearing up a moot point that had long troubled plate block collectors. It does exist and Gibbons was right.

We made a very nice purchase the other day that we think is of interest to the collectors of Newfoundland die proofs. The purchase comprised a complete set of die proofs in black on unwatermarked stamp paper of Scott Nos. 182-198, complete with die sinkage and die number, and it is the last that should be the most interesting to the Newfoundland collector. The die sinkage is 58 mm. by 88 mm., and the die numbers are as follows: Scott No. 183, Die No. 954; Scott 185, Die 967; Scott 187, Die 966; Scott 188, Die 969; Scott 190, Die 960; Scott 192, Die 981; Scott 193, Die 972; Scott 194, Die 957; Scott 195, Die 958; Scott 196, Die 956; Scott 197, Die 962, and Scott 198, Die 963.

We note that in the June issue of TRAIL, at the very end we neglected to advise that the stamp we were talking about was the 2 cent, Scott No. 24.

We are in receipt of a note from Mr. Van Ness (BNAPS 1062), of Chestnut Hill, Mass., giving us some further information on the POSTAGE PAID marking No. 6 first shown in the March 1956 issue of BNA TOPICS. Mr. Van Ness submits two covers with the No. 6 strike and says that they were used between August 27, 1943 and September 7, 1943, that is just about a full year later than the previously recorded date. He also goes on to say that in order for him to send a letter from Argentina to his wife in Halifax, it was necessary to leave the envelope open and enclose seven cents in cash (Newfoundland or Canadian) and the postal authorities would take it from there. It was not possible to send a letter from Newfoundland to Halifax via the States. At the same time we've come into possession of another example of handstamp No. 8 and this one, in addition to the handstamp, bears a St. John's cancel dated February 13, 1947 or about 14 months later than the first one recorded. Why this cancel should continue to be used after the termination of hostilities is more than we can fathom. Does anyone have a possible explanation? ★

Nova Scotia Way Office Cancel Discovered

OVER THE YEARS collectors have found that many of the New Brunswick Way Offices had metal way office cancellers, as evidenced by various markings found on pre-adhesives, stampless and stamped covers. Because of the lack of discovery of any such markings on Nova Scotia covers, it has been almost an accepted fact that Nova Scotia did not have such cancellers for its numerous Way Offices scattered throughout the province. In New Brunswick the markings usually were of the following type: W.O. MOUTH OF HILL STREAM in a double circle.

Finally two stampless covers have been discovered with the same Nova Scotia Way Office cancel. The first cover illustrated (Fig. 1) is one that the writer found in the Provincial Archives, Halifax, N.S., and is part of their collection. It is addressed on the front "To The Honble Provincial Secretary, Halifax" and in manuscript is written "On Her Majesty's Service Via Way Office Pubnico 31/12/55" and the amount paid "3" three pence. (Note incorrect spelling of Pubnico.) The Halifax Tombstone paid mark is stamped in red dated JAN. 8, 1856. On the back is a YARMOUTH, N.S. double circle dated JAN. 2, 1856, and also a double circle W.O.PUBNICO which stands for Way Office Pubnico, Nova Scotia. The N.S. has not been impressed on this cover, but it is part of the marking as the second illustrated cover (Fig. 2) shows it.

Fig. 1 is dated inside, Barrington, N.S., December 31, 1855, and passed through Pubnico, where it received its first marking.

It then was carried to Yarmouth, N.S., where the cover was stamped and dated. From there it went directly to the Halifax post office and received the tombstone cancel.

Fig. 2 is dated inside, Pubnico, N.S., August 17, 1855, addressed to J. McNabb, Halifax; backstamped W.O.PUBNICO N.S., BARRINGTON, N.S. AU 21, 1955, and the usual Halifax receiving mark dated AU 24, 1855.

These covers are conclusive proof that at least one Nova Scotia Way Office had its own village cancellation. Whether other way offices had their own cancellations will depend upon the discovery of more covers with such markings. The author would be pleased to hear from anyone who might have such covers. ★

The Library and Sales Department

Both the BNAPS Library and the Sales Department are important services offered by the Society to its members. A complete list of the books and publications in the Library, numbering in the hundreds, appeared in the 1957 Yearbook and will not be repeated here. Copies of the 1957 Yearbook are still available at 30 cents for those who do not have a copy.

The Sales Department affords you a welcome opportunity to receive selections of stamps composed entirely of your collecting interests and, when you have duplicate material to sell, to present it to potential buyers who are especially looking for the kind of material you offer. The service is fully insured by an insurance fund and is available only to members. Rules and Regulations for the Sales Department appeared in the 1957 Yearbook.

Newfoundland Rarities Bring High Prices

In less than three hours, on June 9, the important Rothschild air mail collection, covering issues only to 1924, realized £11,830 at H. R. Harmer's London (England) auction rooms.

The highlight of the day was the price of £1200 realized for the vertical pair of mint Newfoundland Hawkers illustrated here.

The September edition of Dan Meyerson's "Trail of the Caribou" (p. 210) contained a report of other prices realized at this sale.

Tuya International Philatelic Dictionary

The Tuya International Philatelic Dictionary contains, in alphabetical order, all surcharges on stamps up to 1956, names of countries, capitals, area, population, languages, currencies, most common philatelic terms in English, Spanish, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Danish, Swedish, Norwegian and Polish, names and addresses of principal philatelic clubs and societies throughout the world, as well as condensed biographies of important people and heads of state in whose honor stamps have been issued.

An odd feature of this publication is the fact that the biographical entries are listed by first or given names, rather than by the customary surname (thus: Abraham Lincoln, rather than: Lincoln, Abraham). Unfortunately the usefulness of this book is seriously limited by a multitude of misstatements and typographical errors, so it would seem that the effort required to produce a hard-bound volume such as this has been more or less wasted. Published by Tuya Philatelic Dictionary, P.O. Box 268, Habana, Cuba, at $3.50.

H. R. Harmer Inc. Has World Record Season

Bernard D. Harmer, vice-president of H. R. Harmer Inc., 6 West 48th St., New York City, advises, with the completion of the 1957-58 season, that his firm sold more stamps at public auction than ever before in philatelic history. Between September 16, 1957, and July 23, 1958, in 26 auctions a total of $1,874,801.50 was realized. ★

Have YOU been Missing Out ?

Well — that depends. If you specialize only in 3d Beavers, the 10c Consort, or the 17c Cartier — no, you haven't missed a thing by not receiving my COLLECTOR'S SURPLUS LISTS.

On the other hand you have missed many a good item this past year if you are interested in SQUARED CIRCLES on COVER; FLAG and SLOGAN CANCELS; SEMI-OFFICIAL AIRMAIL STAMPS and COVERS; PERFINS, including EARLY OFFICIALS; POSTAL STATIONERY, including PADPOSTS, PICTORIAL RAILWAY CARDS and FACSIMILE MONEY ORDER CARDS; PLATE BLOCKS; BOGUS LOCALS and COLLEGE STAMPS; ILLUSTRATED ADVERTISING COVERS including PATRIOTICS and EXHIBITIONS; TELEGRAPH STAMPS and COVERS; PLATE VARIETIES; BOOKLETS and PANES; USED BLOCKS; TAX PAIDS; REVENUES, including such toughies as the CAPE BRETON ISLAND PROVISIONAL LAWS, SASKATOON ELECTRICAL INSPECTION, and high valued NEWFOUNDLAND EXCISE; and an occasional unusual PROOF, EARLY CANCEL, etc.

My COLLECTOR'S SURPLUS LISTS are issued every two or three months, and are either in five or ten page editions, containing from 200 to 400 interesting lots.

Subscriptions to these lists are restricted to 100 active collectors and dealers. We are currently revising our mailing list and because 80 per cent of our present subscribers are active buyers, we have room for only 20 new subscriptions at this time.

If you are seriously interested in the type of material described above, send 28c in mint U.S. or Canadian postage and you will receive the lists for the 1958-59 season via AIRMAIL.

The Last Word

From The Editor

1958 YEARBOOK . . .

THE YEARBOOK FOR 1958 is slightly smaller than those issued during recent years, and for a very good reason. As has been pointed out in the past, the budget of the Society only allows for the publication of 10 issues of BNA TOPICS—the eleventh issue, which is this Yearbook, must be self-supporting through the sale of advertising to members and dealers. Even in our best years there was usually a slight deficit which had to be made up from Society funds, and support this year is slightly under some previous years, so the publication had to be curtailed in order not to place too great a strain upon the financial resources of the Society. A big “thank you” to all those who have helped out by advertising in this issue!

OUR SPECIAL B.C. ISSUES . . .

THE COMMENT OF A READER recorded in our Mailbag column in September . . . “What a terrific journal this one was” . . . about sums up the reaction to our two special issues honoring British Columbia in its Centennial year. As mentioned in the July-August issue, Librarian Bob Duncan worked so hard at securing material for a special issue that the deluge of articles made it necessary not only to publish two issues (July-August and September) but has left us with several articles on British Columbia which will appear as soon as possible. Part I of an article by W. E. D. Halliday appears in this number, and others will be printed in November and December.

THOSE PLATE BLOCKS! . . .

WE DON'T WANT to prolong the controversy about Canadian plate blocks being sold at the Philatelic Agency only as a special service to collectors, but we can't help extending a welcome to philatelic writer Lorne W. Bentham who, after undergoing a change of heart, has joined the ever-growing ranks of those who feel that the policy of the Canadian Government in this matter is all wrong insofar as the good of the hobby is concerned. Writing in the July 26 issue of Weekly Philatelic Gossip, Bentham says, in part:

“After thinking it over, many specialists in Canadian plate blocks, including this columnist, disapprove of the decision of the Canadian Post Office Department . . . One specialist believes that if the Canadian Post Office Department decided that plate numbers served no useful purpose, it was logical to dispense with them. . . . The plate numbers which now appear on a limited number of sheets will have no postal significance. . . .” ★

News Reel

THE AUGUST issue of Maple Leaves illustrates a crest which has been adopted by the C.P.S. of G.B. for use on stationery and “with an eye to the future possibility of an amended front cover of the Journal.” The badge was designed by Hedley Hollands (BNAPS 1402), former secretary, now resident in Canada. . . . Many thanks to Lloyd W. Sharpe (BNAPS 395) for postcards from Europe, where he enjoyed an extended trip during the summer. . . . Robert J. Woolley (BNAPS 359) was also a visitor to Britain this summer. On a postcard he reports that he will soon have some perfin material for publication in TOPICS. . . . After some discussion about the publication of the work of the War Tax Study Group in BNA TOPICS, Hans Reiche (BNAPS 783) reports that the group has decided to allow the material to be published by Fritz Billig, who has been the publisher of a previous book by Mr. Reiche. . . . Dr. G. M. Geldert (BNAPS 1235) of Ottawa, is the new president of the Canadian Philatelic Society. . . . The Summer 1958 issue of The Essay-Proof Journal carried an interesting showing of essays and proofs of Newfoundland in an instalment of “The E-P Society Catalog of Essays and Proofs.” Kenneth Minuse (BNAPS 67) is chairman of the catalogue committee. . . . Aubrey Kelson (BNAPS 173) celebrated his 50th anniversary as a member of the American Philatelic Society, August 15. ★
