New Canadian/Newfoundland Airmail Catalogue is Available

For the Canadian or Newfoundland airmail collector this is a must have volume. It was edited by Chris Hargreaves, editor of the Canadian Aerophilatelist and a member of BNAPS, Chris indicated that no information from the previous edition was deleted from the present edition. For a discussion of how the present edition differs from the previous edition Chris gave a wonderful presentation to the Philatelic Specialist Society of Canada (PSSC) last month outlining some of the changes that were made and the reasons why. Included were summaries about various sections of the catalogue.

The PSSC has made Chris' presentation available at:

New Circulation Manager – Brad Fallon

My name is Brad Fallon and I was recently appointed to be the TOPICS Circulation Manager for BNAPS. I would like to take a moment to introduce myself.

I have lived in the Greater Toronto Area most of my life. I graduated with a B.A. in History from Queen's University and through my interest in ships, started a career working for the container shipping industry with companies such as Hapag-Lloyd, Mediterranean Shipping, and COSCO. I had a few years at Abitibi Price Shipping as a ship operator and charterer until they were purchased and closed down the department. I then shifted into the freight forwarding side of the global transportation business and am now a director of a Canadian-owned freight forwarding company called Maltacourt. I currently live in Mississauga with my wife, our two teenage daughters, and some pets.

I started collecting stamps at an early age. My father collected as a young boy growing up in Liverpool, so the year I was born, his mother started to send me First Day Covers and Presentation Packs from her home in the UK. They were carefully stored away until I was about 9 years old, when my father introduced me to the hobby. He taught me much about the hobby and in doing so picked it up again himself. While at Queen's University, I had the privilege of working part-time for G.H McIntyre Stamps. Glen McIntyre was a really wonderful man who taught me even more about the hobby. When I moved back to Toronto after university, I worked in downtown Toronto. My favourite hangout was the George S. Wegg store on Victoria Street. Owner Ted Wright and his wife never seemed to mind that I spent hours in their store but could only afford to spend a few dollars a visit.

As work and family became my main concern, I had little to do with the hobby until perhaps ten years ago when I started to have the time and a little disposal income to put into the hobby. I predominately collect Canada and have an interest in the Admirals as well as more recent definitive series from the 1960s to 1990s. I also have been collecting East Germany, with a focus on the early Soviet occupation, and British East Africa up to modern day Kenya. My wife is from Moldova so I also have been putting together a collection of that on the side.

I look forward to helping any of the members out with lost/missing recent issues of TOPICS. Keep in mind we have copies of almost any issue printed, so if you are missing a few back issues, please let me know.
