Philatelic Videos of Interest

Despite the incredible downside of the COVID pandemic, one of the benefits that arose from the ashes is a bountiful number of philatelic videos. One such producer of videos is the Postal History Society of Canada. Under the listing of this month’s Zoom meetings you will find one for the Postal History Society of Canada but you will also find all of their videos at: Postal History Society of Canada \(PHSC\) (postalhistorycanada.net). The most current of their videos listed is by BNAPS member Jean Wang entitled: A Social and Philatelic History of the Hospital for Sick Children's Early Christmas Appeals.

I highly recommend watching it, it is an excellent presentation. For any of the PHSC videos note the “full-screen” feature indicated by the arrow in the above illustration. Click on it to view any of the videos “full-screen”.

Canadian Philatelic Society of Great Britain (CPSGB)

Their annual convention is being held on Jersey (Channel Islands) 2-6 October. I have, unfortunately, only attended four or five of their conventions but can assure you that each was a joy. I highly recommend your attendance. Here is the registration website. CPSGB - \(canadianpsgb.org.uk\))

If you click on the picture below you will take a journey through what Jersey has to offer. I have already registered and am looking forward to the adventure.

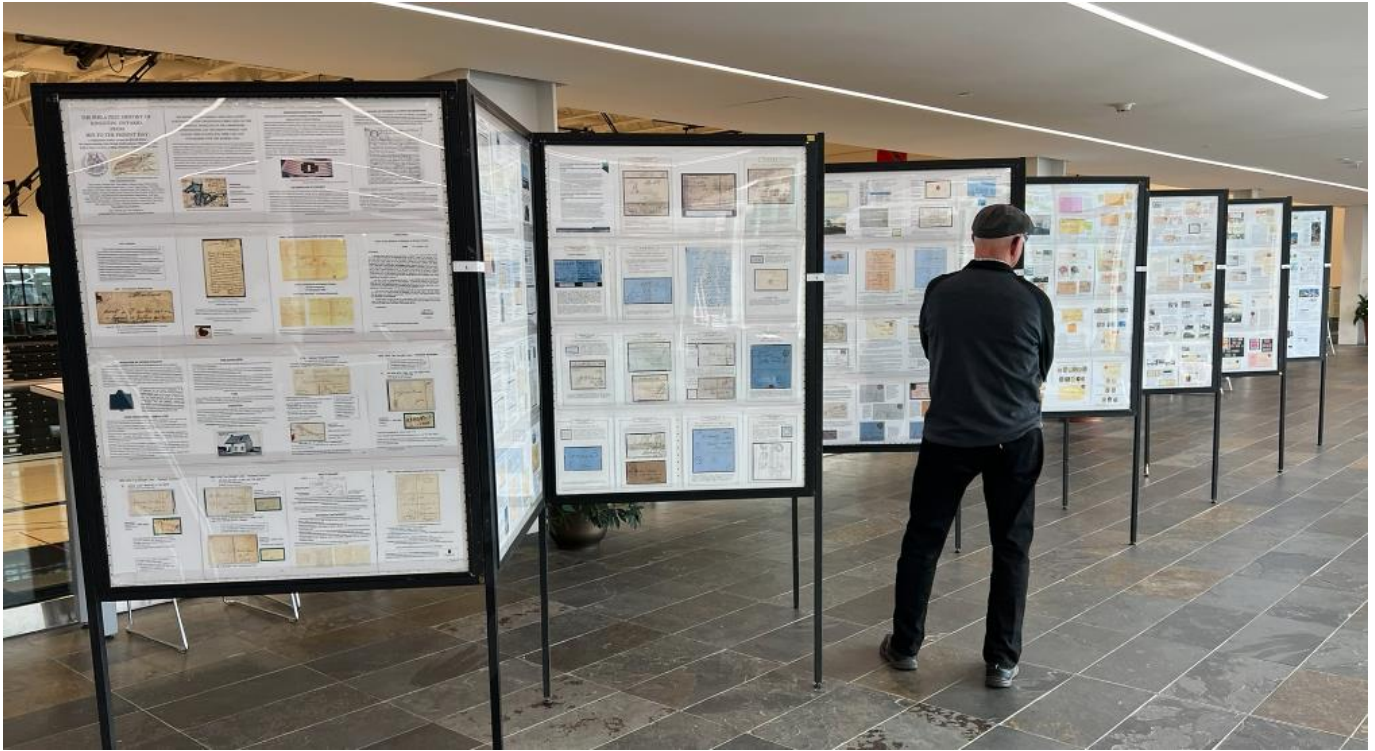

Jersey has an excellent zoological garden, which is world renowned, and, if you are interested in a history of World War II, Jersey has several fortifications built by the Germans which are maintained in excellent condition as tourist attractions. When the convention was held about 10 years ago, a tour was offered to some of these structures. They were truly astonishing. But watch the video for more delightful activities you can experience in Jersey.

Pictures from BNAPEX 2024 – Kingston

A Cruise on the St Lawrence

A popular spot on the cruise

The Kingston Exhibits. Members were asked to submit a photocopy of a one page exhibit of Kingston related material. If my calculations are correct there were over 200 exhibits submitted. Superb.

The bourse – even more popular than the bar.
