

CANADIAN REVENUE NEWSLETTER

A PUBLICATION OF THE CANADIAN REVENUE GROUP OF BNAPS

EDITOR — W. Rockett

FEBRUARY - 1978 # 73

YES - The Canadian Postal Museum at Ottawa has a Revenue Collection on exhibit. While in Ottawa I had a chance to give it a good look over. It consists of the Federal Issues and a nice collection of British Columbia.

Looking at the First Bill Issue it seemed there were quite a few empty spots. I told Jim Kraemer I would send out xerox's of these pages. I thought, since this collection was donated by one of our members, perhaps our members could look over their duplicates and maybe we could fill in some of those empty spots. Pages 1 to 4 are used copies, pages 5 to 9 are mint copies. Now that I have had a chance to look these pages over I realize many of those empty spots don't exist and the pages will eventually have to be remounted.

But, before the pages are remounted we as the Revenue Group should try to fill in some of those spots that do exist. Look over your duplicates and see what we can do. Any item you have you can send to Jim Kraemer, National Postal Museum, Ottawa, Canada K1A 0B1, or I will be glad to forward to Jim with or without your name, whichever you wish.

And naturally with your permission I will recognize the gift in the Newsletter.

COMING EVENTS

May 27 - 7th annual Canadian Revenue Get-to-gether, Willow Grove, Pa
June 9 to 18 - CAPEX - Toronto, Ontario, Canada
Oct. 12 to 15 - BNAPS Convention - Palm Beach, Florida

There was a Revenue Column in Dec.-Jan. Issue of TOPICS by our Column Editor Chuck Emery.

As you can see this month 8 pages of the Revenue Exhibit was included with the Newsletter.

I promise the March Newsletter will have the other two pages of the Supreme Court article by Ed Zaluski.

A lucky find was made by our member Sandy Riesenfeld. He found a counterfeit copy of the 10¢ Quebec 1934 Unemployment Tax Stamp, R 187. It is a lithographed copy instead of being engraved, it is perf. 12
