

CANADIAN REVENUE NEWSLETTER

A PUBLICATION OF THE CANADIAN REVENUE GROUP OF BNAPS

EDITOR — W. Rockett

AUGUST - 1978 # '78

Here we are back from Toronto, CAPEX WAS QUITE AN EXPERIENCE. Hilda and I had a great time. It was a real pleasure meeting our many friends. I especially enjoyed meeting many of the Revenue Group members, I correspond with through the Newsletter and a personal note now and then. It is nice to be able to greet a member face to face and talk revenues. I had the good luck to renew acquaintances with many of you and to see at least a half dozen members I had never met.

I wish to thank Nick Sheklian for the many hours he spent manning the BNAPS Lounge. Nick is quite a salesman for he signed up many new members for BNAPS.

Congratulations go to Lee Brandom. I understand he was awarded a Silver Medal under literature for his Tax Paid Catalog of Canadian Revenues.

At CAPEX, Sissons brought out his 1978 edition of the Canadian Revenue Catalog (price $5.00). This is really a "must" for Revenue Collectors. Altho, except bringing prices up to date, there were very few additions. This was quite a disappointment.

Of course, we do have several other revenue catalogs, Jim Webb (at $1.50) has an illustrated BNA Catalog including Canadian Revenues.

E. van DAM, for $3.00 you can subscribe to his illustrated price lists, RevNews and auction lists of Canadian Revenues.

Yvon Legris has published a Canadian Revenue Catalog printed in English and in French.

Our Revenue Seminar had a good attendance, there is some talk,

Received in the mail: "Sale of British North America and Foreign Revenue Stamps" sale # 76. There are many fine and classic Canadian Revenue items. Too bad I received this too late to mention in the last Newsletter as the closing date is August.

Received Jim Webb's "Canada and Newfoundland Postal Stationery Catalogue" 1978 edition, price $7.50. This is a beauty, well printed and on a good grade of paper. This is a great Stationery Catalog.

Received in the mail:

"Enclosed are three check lists taken from my notes on cancellations on tobacco stamps. They were picked because I have a particular interest in this issue.

I make no pretense that the lists are exhaustive. Probably most of the missing issues exist (plus variations in perf. and print style). Obviously I would like to locate the missing items to fill in the collection, but I would also like to hear from collectors of these items to fill in the listing for a future printing."

Anyone wishing a copy of this 10 page study may have a copy.

In the May Issue of the Newsletter I mentioned that envelopes and new letterheads and stock for two years of the Newsletter, cost $100. I am slightly disappointed with the response for donations.

So far I have received $35.
