A note from our member Bob McGuinness. Enclosed a Xerox of OL 47

I have never seen a pelican (or any other animal) overprinted on a Canadian Revenue. The overprint is in black ink. Have you ever seen anything of this nature. Could it be a security overprint similar to a perfin? Or is it more likely someones joke? I picked this up at a local bourse. Does anyone else have something of this nature?

Have you seen van DAM's Canadian Revenue Album? It's a beauty

I talked to our member Ed Whiting on the phone. He is progressing slowly. He expects to be released from the hospital by January 16. Good Luck Ed.

Change of Address

#346, Bob Hourihan, 6414 Lake Worth Rd., Apt. 827, Lake Worth, FL 33463

Resigned from BNAPS and the Revenue Group, change in collecting interest
#189, Mrs. Lesa von Mettenheim, we will miss the von Mettenheim's. They were avid collectors of Canadian Revenues and had built up one of the best collections which contained many very scarce and rare items. They were always very generous contributors to the Revenue Group and the Newsletter. We wish them happy hunting in their continued philatelic endeavors.
