We had a very successful 13th Annual get-to-gether Saturday June 2nd. 8 of us had dinner on Friday evening. We counted 27 here at one time or other on Sat. Ed and Ernestine Whiting attended both Friday evening and Saturday affairs. Ed is really on his way to total recovery. Now we are looking forward to the 14th Revenue get-to-gether.

Hilda and I have our Airline tickets for San Francisco. We expect to arrive on Tues. the 4th. After the Convention we hope to take a Tour to Seattle.

Our member, John White, will be showing British Columbia Laws, I will show the Excise and War Tax Stamps.

Our member, Bob Pratt, wins collector Club Award. The Alfred P. Liechenstein Memorial Medal of the Collectors Club of New York was presented to Bob Pratt.

The Quebec Revenue Seminar was also a great success. We had a very interesting discussion with several interesting items being displayed. It was suggested that I make a list of those Bullitins which the old Revenue Society published and make them available to those members who would like to have them. This I will do in the fall.

Royal Philatelic Society Convention - Quebec

In spite of the unfavorable approach in judging revenues in exhibitions by some judges, Revenues were recognized.

Bill Robinson had a beautiful exhibit of Saskatchewan Law Stamps and I showed all the varieties of Quebec Revenues. We both received Awards.
